

DYSON, Frank March 1, 1927-August 10, 2017 Frank Dyson, 90, of Robinson, Texas passed away on Wednesday, August 10th. Frank was born in Rotan, Texas. He served in the Navy during World War II. While in the Navy, he met his wife Mary. They were married for 70 years. After the war, he went to work for the Dallas Police Department where he served for 25 years. He retired from the Dallas Police Department as Chief of Police and later became the Chief of Police in Austin, Texas. He served the Austin Police Department for 9 years before retiring to move to Robinson, Texas, where he and Mary have lived in retirement for 33 years. Frank is survived by his wife Mary, children Linda Britt, Vickie Newton, Emily Allen, Jay Dyson, grandchildren Zarina Britt, Robert Britt, Courtney Melton, Lucas Newton, Travis Dyson, Cory Dyson, Taylor Dyson and 7 great-grandchildren. Funeral services will be Tuesday, August 15, 2017 at Waco Memorial, 6623 S IH35, Waco, TX 76706 at 10:00 a.m.

Published in Austin American-Statesman on Aug. 14, 2017