

Pedro Leo Seguin

Pedro Leo Seguin, 72, of Wimberley left his earthly bonds on Monday, January 31, 2022. He was born in San Antonio, Texas, on November 4, 1949, and raised just outside of Floresville in a little community known as Saspamco by the late Pedro C. and Celestina Seguin.

Upon graduation from high school, he ventured out to make his mark on the world. His academic accolades include achieving a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Law and a master's degree in Public Administration from Southwest Texas State University.

Professionally, Leo was appointed as a cadet in the Austin Police Department on March 3, 1975. He graduated from the Austin Police Academy and served as a commissioned police officer from August 3, 1975, until his retirement on April 30, 2009, after 34 years of dedicated service. During his years with the Austin Police Department he served as a patrol officer, a Sergeant Investigator in Internal Affairs, a supervisor overseeing operations at the city jail, a Patrol Sergeant in Central East Austin and ended his career with his most loved assignment as a Sergeant over the narcotics task force within the police department.

It was during his time at Southwest Texas State University that he took a part time job with the City of Luling Police Department where he met the love of his life, Lynn Smith Seguin. Although he took great pride in his years as a police officer, he was most proud of being a dedicated and loving husband to Lynn and a proud and loving father to their son Wesley. He made time to coach little league and Pop Warner Football and loved being able to support Wesley in all of his sports and activities. He gave back to his community by setting up and running Wimberley sporting event concession stands for many years.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

He is survived by his wife of 50 years, Lynn, and his son, Wesley Brian Seguin. Also survived by his nephew, Timothy Mc Donnell, and various cousins, aunts, uncles, and extended family members. Although not related by blood, he counted Sonia Eads as a daughter and Tori Leigh Krauskopf as a granddaughter.

Services for Leo are set as follows:
